Choir Announcement 🎵

Many of us have great memories of our Easter choir, and we'd love to reignite that spark by putting together a choir for the upcoming Christmas season.

Practices will be on Tuesday evenings around 7:30 p.m. (time is flexible), with a few Sunday sessions after church as Christmas approaches.

We'll perform the Sunday before Christmas and may also join the Community Choir performance at the Empress on December 12.

Come lend your voice and help make this season extra special! If you have questions, please contact Gerdine (403-892-1568).

“Then I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will lead you with knowledge and understanding.”

Jeremiah 3:15

Reflection: God promises to provide shepherds after His own heart. The search for a pastor is not merely about filling a position – it’s about discerning the person God has already prepared. Our role is to listen, pray, and follow His lead with humility and unity.

Prayer: Lord, You know the needs of this church and the shepherd You are preparing. Give us patience and faith to follow Your timing. Lead us in unity, wisdom, and peace as we seek Your will. Amen.
